Statement of the ICAPP Standing Committee on the Earthquake in the Tibet Autonomous Region, People's Republic of China
(January 8, 2025)

On behalf of the Standing Committee Members of the International Conference of Asian Political Parties (ICAPP), we extend our heartfelt sympathies and condolences to the people and government of the People's Republic of China, at this moment of tremendous pain caused by the devastating earthquakes that have occurred in Tibet in Western China on January 7, 2025. We are deeply mournful, and our hearts go out to the bereaved families of those victims.

The ICAPP Standing Committee expresses its sincere support and calls upon all nations and governments throughout Asia to stand in unwavering solidarity with the people and government of the People's Republic of China during the time of sorrow. In this context, we strongly endorse the emergency relief efforts initiated by international organizations, various governments, and civil societies, aimed at providing vital humanitarian aid and assisting in the reconstruction of their communities.
