Preparations for the 11th GA and Other Joint Meetings

Plans for the 11th GA and the “20th Founding Anniversary Event,” 36th SC Meeting, 4th Trilateral Meeting of the ICAPP-COPPPAL-CAPP, 5th Meeting of the ICAPP Media Forum, and 2nd Meeting of the ICAPP Tourism Promotion and Inter-City Cooperation (TOPIC) Council

During the Meeting, Hon. Efkan Ala, Deputy Chairman of AK Parti, Chairman of the Foreign Affairs Department of AK Parti, Member of Parliament of Bursa, Turkey, renewed his party’s offer from the last SC meeting to host the 11th GA together with the 36th SC Meeting, the 4th Trilateral Meeting of the ICAPP-COPPPAL-CAPP, and the 5th Meeting of the ICAPP Media Forum in Istanbul, Turkey later this year. He added that the AK Parti would host the 2nd Meeting of the TOPIC Council on the sidelines as well, since the Council of African Political Parties (CAPP) has not renewed its commitment to host the meeting in Tunis, Tunisia.

In terms of timing, Hon. Efkan Ala agreed to change the dates for the 11th GA and the sideline meetings from 17-20 September 2021 to the second part of October. This change was first suggested at the 34th SC meeting in light of Russia’s state Duma elections, which are scheduled to take place in mid-September this year.

Hon. Efkan Ala also expressed AK Parti’s willingness to organize events at the 11th GA to commemorate the ICAPP’s “20th Founding Anniversary,” and to honor Hon. Jose de Venecia, Jr., Founder of the ICAPP and Co-Chairman of the ICAPP SC, for his foundational contributions to the ICAPP. In the previous SC Meeting, SC Members had suggested to organize a peace lecture honoring Hon. Jose de Venecia, Jr., and to invite a keynote speaker such as the Director-General of the World Health Organization (WHO), Dr. Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, to speak about the challenges for Asia during and after the COVID-19 pandemic.

With regards to the 5th Meeting of the ICAPP Media Forum, Hon. Mushahid Hussain Sayed, Vice Chairperson and Special Rapporteur of the ICAPP SC and Chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs, Pakistan Muslim League-N of Pakistan, suggested that the ICAPP invite a select group of journalists from different parts of Asia to participate. He added that a core group of journalists should be formed to help increase ICAPP’s visibility in the areas of social, electronic and print media moving forward. Given his previous experience as a journalist and as the former Minister of Information of Pakistan, Hon. Musahahid Hussain Sayed offered to provide his ideas and input to the ICAPP in achieving this goal.

The SC Members thanked the AK Parti for generously agreeing to host all five aforementioned meetings in Istanbul, Turkey, and for incorporating suggestions from the SC.

Activities of the ICAPP-Affiliated Bodies

The 4th Meeting of the Asia-Europe Political Forum (AEPF)

At the 34th SC Meeting, the SC Members had been informed that the 4th AEPF Meeting in Prague, Czech Republic would be postponed to 21-23 May 2021 after consultations with the Bureau of the European Conservatives and Reformists Group (ECR) and the SC Members. Since then, the Secretariat has continued to communicate with the ECR on future plans for the meeting. Hon. Jan Zahradil, Co-Chairman of the AEPF, Vice-Chair of the International Trade Committee and Member of the European Parliament, attended the Meeting on the invitation of Secretary-General Cho Byung-jae to brief SC Members on plans for the next AEPF meeting.

During the Meeting, Hon. Jan Zahradil proposed to postpone the 4th AEPF Meeting until the 1st or 2nd week of November 2021, given the unfavorable situation in Europe due to the COVID-19 pandemic. He also raised the issue of extending his Co-Chairmanship until the next AEPF Meeting, as he has not been able to carry out the AEPF activities due to the pandemic.

Given the extremely low feasibility of hosting an in-person conference in May 2021, the SC Members supported the postponement of the 4th AEPF Meeting until November of this year. Also, they agreed with Hon. Zahradil and the Secretariat that it would be practical and appropriate to extend the term of the AEPF Bureau until the next meeting in light of the current circumstances.

The 6th Meeting of the ICAPP Youth Wing and the 7th Meeting of the ICAPP Women's Wing

During the 34th SC meeting, the Mongolian People's Party had renewed its offer to host the 6th Meeting of the ICAPP Youth Wing and the 7th Meeting of the ICAPP Women's Wing in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia in October 2021. Since then, the party has proposed 6-8 September 2021 as the new dates for these meetings through separate communication to the Secretariat.

In this regard, Hon. Saikhansanaa Khurelbaatar, Advisor to the Secretary General of the Mongolian People's Party, reiterated her party's proposal to host the two meetings in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia in September 2021.

ICAPP Special Conferences

The 2nd Special Video Conference on the COVID-19 Pandemic

During the 34th SC Meeting, SC Members had agreed to organize a follow-up conference on the COVID-19 pandemic given the importance of international cooperation during the crisis.

In this regard, the Secretariat informed SC Members that the conference was postponed to May 2021 due to the logistical difficulties of scheduling multiple ICAPP meetings in the first quarter, although one of the SC Members had suggested March 2021 at the previous SC Meeting. The SC Members continued to express strong support for the organization of the 2nd Special Video Conference on the COVID-19 Pandemic.

The updated draft concept paper of the 2nd Special Video Conference on the COVID-19 Pandemic is attached as Appendix IX.

Special Conference on Security and Cooperation: Role of Political Parties

During the 34th SC meeting, the New Azerbaijan Party had offered to host a Special Conference on Peace and Cooperation, "Peace and Cooperation Dialogue," in Baku, Azerbaijan in the middle of 2021.

Since then, the New Azerbaijan Party has suggested 26 November or 3 December 2021 as the new date for the conference through separate communication to the Secretariat. The party has also proposed to rename the conference to the “Special Conference on Security and Cooperation: Role of Political Parties.”

In this regard, Hon. Ali Ahmadov, Deputy Chairman of the New Azerbaijan Party, Deputy Prime Minister of the Republic of Azerbaijan, renewed his party’s proposal to host the Special Conference at the end of this year. He also suggested that the conference be held with joint participation from both Asian and European political parties as this would be in line with the philosophy of the Asia-Europe Political Forum (AEPF) of the ICAPP.

Special Conference on Asian Democracy and Political Party Development

During the Meeting, Hon. Cho Jeong-sik, Member of the National Assembly from the Democratic Party of Korea, Republic of Korea, expressed his party’s willingness to host a Special Conference on Asian Democracy and Political Party Development back-to-back with the 37th SC Meeting in Seoul, Korea in the first half of next year, when the pandemic situation is further resolved and the local presidential elections are over.

Other Issues

Political Situation in Myanmar

The SC Members were informed through the ICAPP Update 21-02 on 22 February 2021 that a statement had been issued by Hon. Jose de Venecia, Jr., Founder of the ICAPP and Co-Chairman of the ICAPP SC, and Hon. Cho Byung-jae, Secretary-General of the ICAPP, given the urgent situation in Myanmar. The statement called for a restoration of democracy and stability as well as a resolution of tensions among all parties through peaceful dialogue. Also, it reaffirmed strong support for the people of Myanmar in their pursuit of democracy, peace, and the rule of law.

During the Meeting, many SC Members called for a peaceful resolution and protection of human rights in Myanmar. In particular, Hon. Theo L. Sambuaga, Vice Chairman of the Patron Council of Golkar Party, Indonesia, stated that the ASEAN should be encouraged to come up with appropriate and effective solutions at its upcoming Special Summit on Myanmar, which will be held in Jakarta, Indonesia on 24 April 2021. He suggested that the State Administration Council and the National Unity Government led by Aung San Suu Kyi be invited to engage in a dialogue with the aim of developing Myanmar based on democracy, growth, the promotion of human rights, and good governance. He also mentioned that this should be preceded by stopping the brutality against peaceful protestors and by releasing political prisoners.

In this regard, Hon. Cho Jeong-Sik informed SC Members that the National Assembly of the Republic of Korea had passed a parliamentary resolution condemning the military coup in Myanmar. He expressed his hopes that human rights violations and the use of violence against the people of Myanmar will stop as soon as possible, and called upon the ICAPP to pay special and continuous attention to this issue.

Hon. Youssef Awad, Coordinator for Asia and Overseas from the Free Patriotic Movement

Party of Lebanon, suggested that the ICAPP should make more efforts on the ground to diffuse tensions in certain countries where there are political problems such as Myanmar. He added that in such situations, the ICAPP should form and send a delegation to offer assistance.

In response to Hon. Youssef Awad's suggestion, Secretary-General Cho Byung-jae reminded SC Members that the ICAPP had sent a delegation to Myanmar back in 2012 to offer support to the USDP and the National League for Democracy (NLD) in their efforts to achieve full democracy in the country. He agreed that such works of the ICAPP would continue to remain as a possibility in the future.

Meanwhile, Hon. U Tin Oo Lwin, Member of the Central Committee of USDP, former Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of Myanmar, thanked the SC Members for their concerns for Myanmar. He stated that currently, investigations are being held regarding the misconduct and fraud during the general elections of 2020. He also added that during the current state of emergency, the State Administration Council has established a roadmap which includes the following: the reconstruction of the Union Election Commission in accordance with the law; effective measures to prevent the COVID-19 disease; recovery of businesses affected by the pandemic; restoration of peace nationwide in line with agreements from the Nationwide Ceasefire Agreement (NCA); and lastly, a free and fair multi-party democratic election in accordance with the 2008 Constitution after the state of emergency concludes, followed by the handover of state duty to the winning party in line with the standards of democracy.

The statement on Myanmar issued by Hon. Jose de Venecia, Jr., Founder of the ICAPP and Co-Chairman of the ICAPP SC, and Hon. Cho Byung-jae, Secretary-General of the ICAPP, is attached as Appendix X.

Launch of the ICAPP Newsletter

The Secretariat reported that it had newly launched the ICAPP newsletter this month. The newsletter is to be distributed amongst the ICAPP Members, conference participants and experts in the public and international affairs sectors on a quarterly basis. The Secretariat added that this initiative will further strengthen the ICAPP network and keep the ICAPP Members up-to-date on new developments within the organization. It also expressed its hopes that the newsletter will serve as an effective communication channel with external groups such as international organizations, governments, media, NGOs, think tanks and all other parties who are interested in engaging with the ICAPP.

The SC Members showed support for the Secretariat's new initiative. Hon. Nguyen Thai Hoang Van, Vice Chairman of the Commission for External relations of the Communist Party of Vietnam, who attended the Meeting on behalf of Hon. Nguyen Manh Cuong, Member of the ICAPP SC, agreed that the newsletter will keep the ICAPP member parties up-to-date on the ICAPP activities, and strengthen the communication network among all member parties.

The ICAPP newsletter from April 2021 is attached as Appendix XI.

Developing a "Concept of Financing of Asian Political Parties"

During the Meeting, Hon. Ali Ahmadov, Deputy Chairman of the New Azerbaijan Party, Deputy Prime Minister of the Republic of Azerbaijan, raised the issue of financing and state support for political parties as a potential discussion topic for the ICAPP. He stated that there are a number of political parties that are unable to function effectively due to financial difficulties; and although state subsidies can alleviate the problem to a certain extent, it is not quite enough. As such, Hon. Ali Ahmadov proposed that the ICAPP develop a “Concept of Financing of Asian Political Parties” for the normal functioning of parties by studying the issue of financial resources and by sharing the experiences of various political parties across different countries. He added that the financing of political parties on an open, transparent and legal basis would provide a foundation for the independent activities of political parties in the absence of external influences.

Extending the Term of the Bureau for ICAPP-Affiliated Bodies

During the Meeting, Hon. Dr. Nalinee Taveesin, former Thailand Trade representative, former Minister Attached to the Prime Minister’s Office, Member of Pheu Thai Party of Thailand, recommended that the terms of the bureaus of the ICAPP-affiliated bodies, including the AEPF, Youth Wing, and Women’s Wing, be extended until the next meeting. As aforementioned, Hon. Jan Zahradil, Co-Chairman of the AEPF, Vice-Chair of the International Trade Committee and Member of the European Parliament, also made a similar proposal that the AEPF Co-Chairmanship be extended until the next meeting. These requests were made in account of the bureaus’ inability to carry out the ICAPP activities as a result of the pandemic.

In response, SC Members and the Secretariat agreed that the extension of the terms of the bureaus until the next meeting would be reasonable and practical given the current circumstances.

Reapplying for UN Observer Status

During the Meeting, Hon. Youssef Awad, Coordinator for Asia and Overseas from the Free Patriotic Movement Party of Lebanon, suggested that the ICAPP resume its previous efforts to attain observer status at the United Nations.

In response, Hon. Cho Byung-jae, Secretary-General of the ICAPP, stated that the Secretariat would review previous efforts and plan to continue discussions on this topic at future SC meetings.

On the Situation in Lebanon

During the Meeting, Hon. Fadi Fawaz, Advisor for Development Affairs to H.E. Saad Hariri, Prime Minister and Chairman of Future Movement Party, informed SC Members about the extremely difficult political and economic situation in Lebanon, referencing more than 1.5 million refugees from Syria and another 400,000 refugees from Palestine.

In this regard, he asked all SC Members, whose countries have embassies in Lebanon, to provide assistance in facilitating the creation of a task force to help the people in Lebanon.

Further Engagement in Multilateral Mechanisms

During the Meeting, Hon. Suos Yara, Vice-Chairman of the External Commission of the Cambodian People’s Party (CPP), who participated in the Meeting on behalf of Hon. Khuon Sudary, Vice-Chairperson of the ICAPP SC, recommended that the ICAPP expand its institutional partnerships by engaging with multilateral organizations such as the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM), ASEAN, Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO), and the United Nations.

Ms. Xu Min, Deputy Director General of the Asian Bureau of the International Department of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China, who participated in the Meeting on behalf of Hon. Guo Yezhou, Vice Chairperson of the ICAPP SC, also emphasized the upholding of the principles of multilateralism, extensive consultation, joint contribution, and shared benefit to promote regional peace, stability and development.

Contingency Plan for Offline Meetings

Hon. Cho Byung-jae, Secretary-General of the ICAPP, asked SC Members to share their ideas on a contingency plan for the scenario, in which in-person meetings are not possible due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Hon. Rajan Bhattarai, Chief of the International Department and Member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Nepal (UML), suggested that the ICAPP should continue to monitor the situation closely and make a decision accordingly in a few months' time instead of making a decision now. He also proposed that, should the pandemic situation fail to improve, the GA should be postponed to next year, while some of the sideline meetings could be held online this year.

Hon. Afif Demirkiran, Deputy Chairman of the Foreign Affairs Department of AK Parti, stated that if the situation does not improve, his party is ready to host the 11th GA and other sideline meetings next year instead.
