Phnom Penh, 16 January 2022

Hon. Cho Byung-jae
Secretary-General of the ICAPP
Seoul, the Republic of Korea

Dear Honourable,

I am pleased to inform Your Honorable of the positive outcomes of the peace mission of Samdech Hun Sen, Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Cambodia and the Chairman of ASEAN, to the Republic of the Union of Myanmar on 07-08 January 2022.

Under the visionary leadership of Samdech Chairman, the ASEAN has made remarkable progress and opened new pathway toward reconciliation and peace in Myanmar.

I wish to take this opportunity to share the joint press release adopted on 7 January 2022 which includes the three important agreements as follows:

1. the agreement to maintain a ceasefire until the end of 2022
2. the agreement to allow special envoys to meet all parties to the conflict
3. the agreement to allow humanitarian assistance

In this regard, it would be very appreciative if Your Honorable could kindly share this press release to all the ICAPP members for information.

Please accept, Your Honorable, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Sincerely Yours,

KHUON Sudary
Vice-Chairperson of the ICAPP Standing Committee
Chairperson of Asian Cultural Council
(Deputy Speaker of the National Assembly of the Kingdom of Cambodia)
