Other Issues

Council of African Political Parties (CAPP)

Hon. Cho Byung-jae, Secretary General of the ICAPP, reported that despite its efforts to closely cooperate and coordinate with the CAPP, the ICAPP Secretariat has recently experienced much difficulties in communicating with the CAPP Secretariat in Khartoum. In view of the recent political developments in Sudan, the Secretariat was of the view that the CAPP Secretariat could not function properly as a communication hub for political parties in Africa. Secretary General Cho added that in order for the ICAPP to expand its outreach to political parties in Africa, it needed to consider some other ways, including making direct approaches to major political parties in other African countries.

The SC Members acknowledged the need for the ICAPP to evaluate the situation objectively and seek for ways to reach out to political parties in Africa directly, rather than maintaining its contact through the CAPP Secretariat, in view of the pressing need to update and upgrade cooperation and coordination between political parties in both continents to meet the common challenges.

In this regard, several SC Members, including Hon. Andrey Klimov, representing the United Russia Party, Hon. Afif Demirkiran, representing the AK Parti of Türkiye, Hon. Mushahid Hussain Sayed, representing Pakistan Muslim League-N, and Hon. Qian Hongshan, representing the Communist Party of China, offered to assist and coordinate with the ICAPP Secretariat by making use of the extensive network of their parties to expand contacts with the political parties in Africa.

ICAPP's Bid for U.N. Observer Status

Hon. Cho Byung-jae, Secretary General of the ICAPP, gave a brief report on the current state of the ICAPP's bid for observer status in the U.N. General Assembly (UNGA). According to the most recent ICAPP mission to the U.N. Headquarters in New York in October 2021, the criteria for the UNGA observer status had been strengthened. Since the 6th Committee of the UNGA, which deals with the UNGA observer status, makes decision by consensus, there should not be any country blocking the consensus, and, therefore, the ICAPP needs to secure the support of all member states, not only in Asia but also in other continents. Secretary General Cho briefed that submitting the ICAPP's application to the 6th Committee would require much in-advance preparations and coordination among the governments of the ICAPP Members, including securing as many co-sponsors of the drafting resolution to invite the ICAPP as UNGA observer as possible.

In this regard, Hon. Chung Eui-yong, Chairman of the SC, stated that the ICAPP has tried to obtain observer status in the UNGA for five times during 2011-2016. On 26 July 2013, the MOU on Cooperation to Support the Activities of the ICAPP among the governments of ICAPP Member countries was signed, in an effort to give the ICAPP a more official governmental status, and so far eleven countries have signed the MOU, including Azerbaijan, Bangladesh, Cambodia, China, Iran, Kazakhstan, Mongolia, Nepal, Republic of Korea, Sri Lanka and Vietnam. Nevertheless, some member states of the U.N., including the countries represented in the ICAPP SC, had highlighted the UNGA decision 49/426, during the discussions at the 6th Committee of the UNGA, which states that "the granting of observer status in the General Assembly should in the future be confined to States and to those intergovernmental organizations whose activities cover matters of interest to the Assembly," and opposed the ICAPP's bid for observer status. It was therefore advisable for the ICAPP to be certain that there will be a consensus before it decides to re-submit the application to the 6th Committee.

The SC Members noted that there have been four exceptions to the UNGA decision 49/426, and agreed that the ICAPP should continue its efforts to obtain observer status in the UNGA which will greatly contribute to further promoting not only the cause of the ICAPP but also global peace and prosperity. They also agreed to work closely with the Secretariat to secure support of the governments of all member states of the U.N. for the ICAPP's bid for the observer status in the UNGA.

Hon. Andrey Klimov, Deputy Secretary General of the United Russia Party (URP) on International Affairs, also proposed that the ICAPP could consider applying for observer status in the Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU), which holds assemblies twice a year with members around the world, as a first step toward the goal of attaining observer status in the UNGA.

Proposals on Change in the ICAPP Leadership

Hon. Dr. Nalinee Taveesin, Member of the ICAPP Standing Committee, Chairperson of Foreign Affairs Committee of Pheu Thai Party of Thailand, reported that Hon. Jose de Venecia, Jr., Founder and Co-Chairman of the ICAPP SC, has recently indicated his personal wish to retire from active duties in the ICAPP due to his health conditions, and made the following proposals relating to the change in the leadership of the ICAPP SC:

- Hon. Jose de Venecia, Jr., be named Founder of the ICAPP and Chairman Emeritus of the ICAPP SC
- Hon. Chung Eui-yong be elected Chairman of the ICAPP SC, and
- Hon. Mushahid Hussain Sayed be elected Co-Chairman of the ICAPP SC

The proposal was seconded by six other SC Members, including Hon. Fadi Fawaz, representing the Future Movement Party of Lebanon, Hon. Qian Hongshan, representing the Communist Party of China, Hon. Andrey Klimov, representing the United Russia Party, Hon. Ing Kantha Phavi, representing the Cambodian People's Party, Hon. Afif Demirkiran, representing the AK Parti of Türkiye, and Hon. Diana Widyastuti, representing the Golkar Party of Indonesia. They all recognized enormous contributions made by Hon. Jose de Venecia, Jr. to the cause and work of the ICAPP as its founder and leader over 22 years, and stated that it was with their great sadness and due respect to his decision to accept his personal wish to relinquish his duties in the ICAPP.

Hon. Chung Eui-yong confirmed that he had just received a letter from Hon. Jose de Venecia, Jr. confirming his decision to relinquish his duties in the ICAPP, and stated that he had wished to take the decision on the transition of leadership in his presence which he believes to be a more dignified way, but, in view of his strong will, proposed to find a more suitable occasion to honor him in the near future on his contributions to the ICAPP.

The SC Members decided to report to the GA on the change in the ICAPP leadership as proposed to the GA for its endorsement.

Both Hon Chung Eui-yong and Hon. Mushahid Hussain Sayed stated that they were humbled and honored by the trust confided in them by the SC members, and expressed that they will put their best efforts to continue to serve the ICAPP and work closely with all SC members.
