TAHIR BUDAGOV

Deputy Chairman of the New Azerbaijan Party – Head of the Central Office

Hon. Tahir Budagov was born on January 1, 1965.

In 1987, he received his bachelor's degree from Azerbaijan Medical University, during 1987-1992, he continued his medical education, first in clinical residency and then in a postgraduate course. He has a PhD in medicine.

In 1992-1997, he worked as a teacher at the Azerbaijan Medical University and in parallel, he was engaged in medical practice as a surgeon.

In 1997-1999, he worked as Chief Physician of the Rehabilitation Center for the Disabled.

He served in the positions of Deputy Minister of Labor and Social Protection of Population of the Republic of Azerbaijan in 1999-2006, as Deputy Head of Department at the Presidential Administration of the Republic of Azerbaijan in 2006-2009 and as Head of the Executive Power of Nizami District of Baku in 2009-2015.

On August 13, 2015, he was appointed as Chairman of the State Statistics Committee of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

He has been a member of YAP since 1993, YAP Political Council since 1999 and YAP Board since 2021.

On March 5, 2021, he was appointed as Deputy Chairman of the New Azerbaijan Party - Head of the Central Office.

He is an honored civil servant and a state counselor of the 3rd degree of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

He is married, has three children.