Speeches

- There may be keynote presentations by experts from international organizations.
- There will be up to one speaker from each political party for each session.
- The list of speakers will be in the order of registration forms received, and it will be circulated by the Secretariat in advance of the conference.
- The speakers are requested to make their remarks related to the conference topics.
- Participants who would like to speak during the conference are required to mark in the registration form they submit.
- All participants who signed up to speak are requested to send their speeches to the Secretariat at secretariat@theicapp.org as soon as possible and no later than Friday, August 16, 2024.
- All speakers other than the keynote presenters will be allocated five (5) minutes each for their remarks.

Statements

- The "Ulaanbaatar Statement" for the 8th Meeting of the ICAPP Women's Wing that reflect the key outcomes of the meetings will be adopted at the closing session.
- The initial draft statements will be prepared by the Secretariat after consultations with the Bureaus of the Women's Wing. Afterwards, the draft statements will be circulated to the ICAPP SC in advance of the conference.
- After consultations with the participants, the final statement will be completed and circulated before the closing session.

Final Report

- The Secretariat, in coordination with the Mongolian People's Party, will prepare and circulate the final report that summarizes key outcomes of meetings.

Working Language

- The conference will be conducted in English in accordance with Article 15 of the ICAPP Charter.
- Participants will be responsible for their own interpreters should they require such services. However, the same time limit will be applied to all participants regardless of their use of interpreter services. As such, simultaneous rather than consecutive interpretation is recommended.
